

ably will skirt a hostile end for 60 yards or boot the old oval the same distance.

The union of Tom Bundy and Miss May Sutton, both Californians, has produced another future tennis great.

Nate, their peppery son, already is deep in the throes of a preliminary course. A few years hence Nate may be burning up the courts.

Young Tommy Leach has reduced the hit and run, the squeeze and sunfield to a fine art, and, according to his daddy, will be heard from in world series play.

The name of Kid Herman of New Orleans should be placed alongside that of Johnny Ertle of St. Paul as a red-hot candidate for the bantam-weight championship.

In a 20-round mill at New Orleans, Herman came nearer beating Kid Williams than any fighter since Williams won the crown from Coulon, barring the decision on a foul awarded Ertle.

Fans protested almost to the point of violence when the Herman-Williams scrap was called a draw and demand that Herman be given another chance.

Arthur Staff of the Northwest Skating club, who took high honors in ice meets at Garfield and Humboldt parks, won the two-mile international event at Saranac Lake, N. Y. Staff is tied with Ben O'Sicky of Cleveland and Harry Cody of Toronto for the championship medal.

Hugh Heal of Toledo defeated Charley Morin, 59 to 45, in a game of the Interstate Three-Cushion Billiard league.

Johnny Ertle, St. Paul bantam, defeated Terry Martin of Providence in ten rounds at New York. Ertle did nearly all the leading and inflicted heavy punishment with a right hand smash that he employed frequently.

Soldier Bartfield and Ted Lewis fought ten rounds to a draw at Buffalo.

Final articles have been signed for the Willard-Moran bout, the affair to take place March 8.
